Art Unit: 3748

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. 5005351

(Archer).

Archer discloses a power plant condenser control system comprising a condenser comprising temperature sensors and pressure sensors 30, 32, at many locations in the condenser including the inlet and the outlet. A flow meter can be installed at the inlet of the condenser (column 3, lines 54-68) and being controlled in response to the temperature and pressure sensors.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Drosdziok et al, Kuwahara, Brossard, and Harpster disclose condensers having pressure/temperature sensors.
